

Get your costs covered

Over 80% of conference attendees' costs are paid by their employers.

HEALTHCON Regional 2024
Philadelphia, PA

It's simple:

Keeping yourself informed and up to date benefits not only you, but your entire company.

You'll learn how to be more efficient, navigate key issues, and implement best practices and important industry updates into your work — which can help increase your company's bottom line.

How to get your employer on board:

1 Be prepared. We'll be announcing our agenda soon! When available, review the agenda and highlight sessions that complement your skills and capabilities, or areas you hope to grow in.

2 Show your dedication. Educate your supervisor on how the knowledge you gain at HEALTHCON Regional 2024 will help you and your team. Emphasize the direct link between the topics covered and your company's objectives.

3 Focus on continuing education. Tell your supervisor that this 3-day hybrid event is a great way for you to earn 15+ CEUs. You'll get to choose from over 40 sessions full of insight from more than 30 leading experts in the industry.

By using these steps, we're confident you can make a strong case to convince your employer to cover your HEALTHCON Regional 2024 expenses.

It was my first time attending an AAPC conference and it was amazing! I was able to network with my fellow healthcare professionals from all across the country. I learned a lot and the sessions were very informative and helpful.

I learned so much! Quite a variety of subject matter. It was easy to navigate the conference facility. The apps helped with session details and CEU entry. Also signing up was a breeze.
